Dupuy Named Outstanding Nursing Instructor of the Year

Baton Rouge, LA – Keeley Dupuy, M.S.N., R.N., Assistant Professor of Nursing at Our Lady of the Lake College, was recognized by Our Lady of the Lake Regional Medical Center as the Outstanding Nursing Instructor of the Year at a May 5, 2011 event.

The award nomination describes Ms. Dupuy as caring and compassionate with her students, yet she also holds them to a high standard. In the classroom, she can take complex information and break it down into understandable pieces, using active learning strategies to engage students with the material. Clinically she is a role model who provides excellent care to patients, always stressing patient safety with her students.

Ms. Dupuy contributes in significant ways to academic development at Our Lady of the Lake College, where she has worked for over six years. She currently serves as chair of the College's curriculum committee, leading the development of a groundbreaking foundational BSN curriculum. Not only has she championed an interdisciplinary approach to curriculum, but she has involved faculty across the campus in the development of case studies for campus-wide use.

Because she believes in the importance of professional and community service, Ms. Dupuy is currently on the Board of Directors for the Louisiana State Nurses Association and Chair of the Membership Committee for the Baton Rouge District Nurses Association. She is also a member of the American Nurses Association, Sigma Theta Tau International Honor Society of Nursing and the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Offering master's, baccalaureate, and associate degrees, Our Lady of the Lake College is a four-year, independent institution, providing a strong foundation in the liberal arts and continuing its highly-regarded health sciences and nursing programs. Established in 1923 as a nursing school by the Franciscan Missionaries of Our Lady (FMOL), Our Lady of the Lake College holds to a Franciscan tradition of service, offer a healing and spiritual presence for the community and especially those most in need.
